Sunday 6th November 2022

OAKSHAW ORACLE

A warm welcome to all visitors who are reading this online version of our Sunday worship. We have a short worship video based on the church service.

The hymns and the Music for Meditation are played by our Choir Master David Murray.

- 100 - O Lord, thou art my God and King
- 425 - The Saviour died, but rose again
- The Music for Meditation is 'Romanza' from Piano Concerto No.1 by Chopin.

The Order of Service is for the service in church. It is now good to be back in the church and the minister would encourage you to join us at 11a.m. for our service in church if you are able.

The video is available on the website <http://www.oakshawtrinity.org.uk/music> (Music menu) and on the Facebook page www.facebook.com/oakshawtrinity.

Choir Members
Welcome!
Come along and share your talents with us on Thursday
Evenings at 8.00 p.m.

Both readings today pulse with the theme of HOPE. It was the wise and perceptive late Chief Rabbi, Jonathan Sacks who explained the difference between hope with optimism thus: "Optimism and hope are not the same... Optimism is a passive virtue, hope an active one. It needs no courage to be an optimist, but it takes a great deal of courage to hope. The Hebrew Bible is not an optimistic book. It is, however, one of the great literatures of hope." The little known (and read?) prophet Haggai delivers a powerful message of hope from God, inspiring his people as they set about re-building the Temple. His message reminds us in our day that buildings are important to God as is their purpose and what goes on inside them – a message of hope to us as Presbytery currently reviews its buildings, including ours. In our Gospel Reading Jesus points to the hope of resurrection reminding us that the souls of the faithful of all ages live on with God.

PRAYER: May we live our lives in hope. Through the guidance of your Spirit help us to love the things you love, and continue to serve you in our daily lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord....
