Born of ecumenism 35 years ago, following an initiative from the Orthodox Ecumenical Patriarch, the Season, and a special celebration at its opening, now has backing from the World Council of Churches, Vatican Dicastery for Promoting Integral Human Development, Anglican Communion, Lutheran World Federation, Laudato Si' Movement, Middle East Council of Churches, ACT Alliance, Christian Aid, and other partners. The steering committee puts it like this:

"We know that with the current climate crisis accelerating ecological instability, millions of species including the human family are at risk and the only way forward must be united."

A major conference was held in Saint Francis' hometown of Assisi this year, to look at ways of embedding prayer with Creation into the regular practice of churches, rather than as an occasional opt-in, which can be ignored as if this were not 'the real business' of the Church.

Prayer: God with us, receive our sorrows for what should not have been. Forgive and repurpose what we are today for your glory and the joy of all Creation...
