

OAKSHAW TRINITY CHURCH

Sunday 2nd April 2023

OAKSHAW ORACLE

A warm welcome to all visitors who are reading this online version of our Sunday worship. We have a short worship video based on the church service.

The hymns and the Music for Meditation are played by our Choir Master David Murray.

- 367—Hosanna, loud hosanna
- 642—Ye that know

The Music for Meditation is 'Meditation' from Thais by Jules Massenet.

The Order of Service is for the service in church. It is now good to be back in the church and the minister would encourage you to join us at 11a.m. for our service in church if you are able.

The video is available on the website <http://www.oakshawtrinity.org.uk/music> (Music menu) and on the Facebook page www.facebook.com/oakshawtrinity.

THE BENEDICTION & DRESDEN AMEN

One of the most notable things about this man is that he walked straight into the face of danger and death. He didn't have to. He could have slipped quite easily into the wings of history and been forgotten. And yet in another sense he did have to.

His mission was to save people..., and that was a big task. There are three things generally speaking that threaten to destroy people – slavery, suffering and sin. In his mind the greatest of these was sin. Sin was the thing at the bottom, which if removed, a person would be free to handle slavery and suffering.

So Jesus set out on a mission to save his people from whatever it was that was cutting them off from the source of life – from God.

PRAYER: Help us, O God, as we try to follow Jesus through the crowded ways of the city into the Temple and then out to the Mount of Olives. Open our minds as we hear him answering questions that we may follow steadily in the way of Jesus, on to the cross and to life ...*
