OAKSHAW ORACLE

A warm welcome to all visitors who are reading this online version of our Sunday worship. We have a short worship video based on the church service.

The hymns and the Music for Meditation are played by our Choir Master David Murray.

- 527—Lord make us servants of your peace
- 449- Rejoice! The Lord is King

The Music for Meditation is 'Winter' Of Foreign Lands and Peoples' by Schumann

The Order of Service is for the service in church. It is now good to be back in the church and the minister would encourage you to join us at 11a.m. for our service in church if you are able.

The video is available on the website <http://www.oakshawtrinity.org.uk/music> (Music menu) and on the Facebook page www.facebook.com/oakshawtrinity.

Mr. David Murray BMus FTCL, FISM LRAM LTCL

Today's Gospel reading has the only two occurrences of Jesus being described as the "Lamb of God". John had reluctantly baptised Jesus believing that Jesus, the sinless one, should baptise him (Matthew 3.13-17). It was at this point we hear John describing Jesus as "the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world" (v.29 & v.36).

The Jews of that time knew about sin; no matter how reluctant they might be in practice to acknowledge their own particular sins. They also understood about sacrifices as they played a large part in their religious worship acknowledging that something had to be done about the guilt of sin as indicated in our reading from Isaiah.

It was this prior knowledge that inspired the disciples to follow Jesus with the realisation that as the "Lamb of God", he was sufficient for the saving of lost souls...

Prayer: Lord Jesus, may your law of love and sacrifice be written in all our lives that we may rightly call you Lord and go forth to be your witnesses in the world.
