MEDITATION

The Vision of Love

Is it not significant that from tonight's reading, so far as we know, Mary was the only one among them who had taken the words of Jesus as to his death, at face value? She had caught a glimpse of the Cross and in her actions she was anointing Jesus for his burial. Love always looks ahead. Love sees open doors in the walls of rock. Love discovers beams of hope in the darkness of night. Only the eyes of love will see the situation as it is.
Rev. Gordon B. Armstrong
