

OAKSHAW TRINITY CHURCH

Sunday 21st August 2022

OAKSHAW ORACLE

A warm welcome to all visitors who are reading this online version of our Sunday worship. We have a short worship video based on the church service.

The hymns and the Music for Meditation are played by our Choir Master David Murray.

- 187 - There's a wideness in God's mercy
- 739 - The Church's one foundation
- The Music for Meditation is 'Sarabande' from English Suite No.2 by JS Bach.

The Order of Service is for the service in church. It is now good to be back in the church and the minister would encourage you to join us at 11a.m. for our service in church if you are able.

The video is available on the website <http://www.oakshawtrinity.org.uk/music> (Music menu) and on the Facebook page www.facebook.com/oakshawtrinity.

Hymn: No. 739

The Church's one foundation

THE BENEDICTION & DRESDEN AMEN

Most of you will be familiar with the passage of Jeremiah being knitted together in his mother's womb under the careful watch of God.

Our Gospel reading then carries us into a synagogue where Jesus is teaching. By this point in Luke's gospel narrative, Jesus' reputation in the region, like that of Jeremiah was established. Jesus sees the woman, has compassion on her, and reaches out to her and in a word her world is changed.

You would think everyone would rejoice with her, yet a voice of objection calls out. His objection is not to the healing itself, but to its timing. As the leader lays out his argument, contending that Jesus did the right thing at the wrong time, making it the wrong thing.

However, Jesus almost instantly reshapes the conversation. Jesus parallels caring for a work animal with healing the woman by leveraging a specific term for the woman; he calls her a "daughter of Abraham." By using this phrase, Jesus is elevating his healing the woman over the other permissible Sabbath acts.

Our communities are filled with those suffering in silence; who need to be loved and healed through Christ's work as expressed through the Church...

PRAYER: Strengthen us by your Holy Spirit, that by word and by example, we might glorify you in our daily lives.
