Sunday 28th August 2022

OAKSHAW ORACLE

A warm welcome to all visitors who are reading this online version of our Sunday worship. We have a short worship video based on the church service.

The hymns and the Music for Meditation are played by our Choir Master David Murray.

- 189 - Be still, for the presence of the Lord
- 680 - You are called to tell the story
- The Music for Meditation is 'At The Cradle' by Grieg.

The Order of Service is for the service in church. It is now good to be back in the church and the minister would encourage you to join us at 11a.m. for our service in church if you are able.

The video is available on the website <http://www.oakshawtrinity.org.uk/music> (Music menu) and on the Facebook page www.facebook.com/oakshawtrinity.

You are called to tell the story,

THE BENEDICTION & DRESDEN AMEN

Jesus was once invited to dinner held in the home of an influential Pharisee. When he arrived he watched with amusement as some of the guests, convinced of their own status and importance, seated themselves in the places of honour. Perhaps the obvious beginning is the obvious one that guests should wait to be seated.

At first glance, this parable appears to be nothing more than a lesson in etiquette for dinner party-goers, but, Jesus was sent to redeem the world, not to teach it social graces and etiquette. To get the real meaning of this parable, we have to go deeper still and understand that it is God who puts people in their place. As is true of all Jesus' parables, this one has to do with God, the kingdom of God, and our relationship with him.

God is the host. This is his party and God is the one who puts people in their place. The lesson of this parable is that we do not humble or exalt ourselves. Only God can do that.

PRAYER: Almighty God, today we choose to walk humbly with you and to live by your Spirit...
