Sunday 11th September 2022

OAKSHAW ORACLE

A warm welcome to all visitors who are reading this online version of our Sunday worship. We have a short worship video based on the church service.

The hymns and the Music for Meditation are played by our Choir Master David Murray.

- 96 - Thou are before me, God (from a sound recording of a church service in 2001)
- 482 - Come, let us to our Lord and God
- The Music for Meditation is Adagio in F by Mozart.

The Order of Service is for the service in church. It is now good to be back in the church and the minister would encourage you to join us at 11a.m. for our service in church if you are able.

The video is available on the website <http://www.oakshawtrinity.org.uk/music> (Music menu) and on the Facebook page www.facebook.com/oakshawtrinity.

Today's readings all speak about the human consciousness of what is right and what is wrong. Paul preaches the value of Christian certainty, and he does that for three very particular reasons.

1. He asserts the trustworthiness of Jesus. Paul having met Jesus could know him, he could be sure that in every situation, every experience, every difficulty, that he was in this with Jesus Christ his Saviour and friend.

2. Paul preaches that value of Christian certainty because he found that this was a faith that worked for him, a faith that could be tried and found to be true in any day of his life.

3. Paul preaches the value of Christian certainty because the gospel makes sense for life and for the universe in which it is to be lived.

Whatever evidence we may accept or ignore, like Paul, I find it impossible to reject the testimony of the Lord Jesus Christ.

RAYER: As we bring together our thoughts and meditations, we wait silently in the shadows to hear with them your words of forgiveness and the confidence to know that we live for the risen Jesus...
