Sunday 18th September 2022

OAKSHAW ORACLE

A warm welcome to all visitors who are reading this online version of our Sunday worship. We have a short worship video based on the church service.

The hymns from the church service and Music for Meditation are played by our Choir Master David Murray.

- 243 - Touch the earth lightly, use the earth gently
- 702 - Lord in love and perfect wisdom
- The Music for Meditation is 'The Flower o' the Quern' arr. by K McLean.

The Order of Service is for the service in church. It is now good to be back in the church and the minister would encourage you to join us at 11a.m. for our service in church if you are able.

The video is available on the website <http://www.oakshawtrinity.org.uk/music> (Music menu) and on the Facebook page www.facebook.com/oakshawtrinity.

Choir Members Welcome!
*Come along and share your talents with us on Thursday
Evenings at 8.00 p.m.*

Like the biblical farmer, many of us might be tempted to rush out and pull out the weeds from the wheat. Yet the hundreds of weeds had roots that were intertwined with the wheat. The best approach was to wait for the harvest when the plants could be safely separated from the weeds.

Waiting is sometimes one of the most difficult things we are ever asked to do – especially for many of our brothers and sisters these days when it is for the kingdom of God. Sometimes, snap decisions are made rather than waiting upon the will of God.

Waiting isn't just about sitting back and doing nothing; it involves reaching out to grasp and take hold of present opportunities and thereby participating in the kingdom. Waiting involves the fervent hope that evil will be rooted out and good will become victorious...

Prayer: Lord, let the wisdom of your harvesting be known to the degree that we might understand your will for us. Let your Spirit work in us that we may fulfil your purpose for us....
